

Max Franz

925-876-4408 • Lafayette, CA • maxfranz2@gmail.com

A motivated and personable student pursuing a BS in Computer Science with an Applied Focus in Cybersecurity at Oregon State University. Passionate about computer science and eager to learn at a much higher level through on-the-job experiences.

EDUCATION

Oregon State University | Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

Expected June 2022

- Major GPA: 3.57
- Dean's List
- Applied Focus in Cybersecurity
- Member, Security Club

Relevant Coursework:

- Cryptography and Security
- Algorithms
- Databases
- Technical Writing
- Networking

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

- Proficient in C++, C, Java, Python, HTML, CSS, Rust, and Assembly
- Experienced with Windows OS and Linux
- Firm understanding of Networking, Algorithms, and Databases
- Experience with cryptography and cryptographic proofs
- Research, Planning, and Technical Writing
- Identifying and creatively solving problems
- Teamwork developed from numerous group-oriented programming projects

EXPERIENCE

Customer Service Representative

Mar. 2017 - Sept. 2019

Noah's New York Bagels | Lafayette, CA

- Operated in a high-stress environment while coordinating with customers and fellow customer service representatives.
- Provided excellent customer service by listening and responding to customer needs and diffusing tension during rush times.
- Managed front and back end operations including running the cashier desk, setting up a computer scheduling system, fixing Point-of-Sale systems, and working with accounting systems.

Vice President of Health and Safety

Dec. 2020 - Present

Theta Chi Fraternity | Corvallis, OR

- Ensured the health and safety of a full chapter house.
- Led and directed numerous safety oriented events and workshops.